

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE WEEK AT BROWN

MONDAY SEPTEMBER 19 - SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 25, 2016

ASL WEEK AT BROWN KICK-OFF

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

LOCATION: CENTER FOR LANGUAGE STUDIES, 195 ANGELL STREET, ROOM 202, PROVIDENCE, RI

TIME: 6 - 8 PM

Language: This is an ASL immersion event for all levels of signers.

Admissions: FREE

Meet people from Brown University and the Deaf community who are ASL users. There will be an ice-breaker, some games, and other fun activities to help kick-off ASL week. Light refreshments will be provided.

WITH SIGN LANGUAGE, WE ARE EQUAL:

A GLOBAL SOCIAL JUSTICE MOVEMENT

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

LOCATION: CENTER FOR LANGUAGE STUDIES, 195 ANGELL STREET, ROOM 202, PROVIDENCE, RI

TIME: 6 - 8 PM

Language: The lecture and discussion will be in ASL and voice interpreted.

Admissions: FREE

Timothy Riker, Lecturer of ASL Studies at Brown University will provide an overview of global issues affecting Deaf people and lead a discussion about the global social justice movement. He will also discuss about what inclusion really means and how sign languages are necessary to achieve equality.

RI SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

125TH

BIRTHDAY BBQ

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

LOCATION: RI SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF, ONE CORLISS PARK, PROVIDENCE, RI

TIME: 11AM- 3PM

Admissions: $20/person, $40/family for first 50

Contact: Marie 401-222-3525 celebrate@rideaf.net

All people are welcome to join to celebrate RI School for the Deaf's 125th anniversary. The BBQ will include fresh roasted pork, pulled pork, East & West BBQ sauce, BBQ boneless chicken, homemade apple sauce, red roasted potatoes, old fashioned cole slaw, corn bread & butter, dessert, and drinks. There will be a bouncing house and games!