

Bullying & Harassment of Students with Disabilities

What Parents and Educators Need to Know

Workshop

Students with disabilities are two to three times more likely to be bullied than the general population. The focus of this workshop will be on the school's responsibility to keep students safe and how parents can work with schools in preventing bullying. We will also discuss what happens when bullying limits a student's ability to receive a free and appropriate public education.

Join us at our centrally located site in Cranston for information, tips & support!

FREE Workshop — Registration is Required.
