Dear Friends & Family of Brian,

Thank you for your patience as events unfold around Brian's Memorial Services:

A Newport, RI Memorial Service for Brian will be held at 12 Noon on Sunday July 24, at Brenton Point State Park on Ocean Drive in Newport, RI. For a map of this area, go to this mapquest link: (From Providence): <http://mapq.st/q4V57F> (From Boston): <http://mapq.st/qjYDnp>. If you need further directions, you can either do a specific mapquest search from your own address (at mapquest.com), or feel free to email me for further assistance.

A Sunday Brunch is being planned immediately following Brian's Memorial at the Safari Room Restaurant at OceanCliff. Please RSVP if you are interested in being a part of this event as soon as possible. We are currently in the process of coordinating with the events manager and further details will be announced shortly.

A Lynn, MA Memorial Service for Brian is being planned three Sundays after the Newport Memorial, on August 14, 2011. We are in the process of planning a ceremonial ash scatter at the pond behind Ray & Mackie Bastarache's where Brian first skated with his best friends and also at the Happy Valley Golf Course (now the Gannon Municipal Golf Club) on the hill with the old tow rope where Brian first learned to ski. Following these two locations we will proceed immediately to Rolly's Tavern on the Green. Times and details will be announced shortly.

Donations can be made to the: "Brian J. Hubbard Memorial Fund", 148 Kay St., Newport, RI 02840.

Today, a beautiful obituary on page A10 of the Providence Journal was written by Felice Freyer, (who wrote the two-part article written about Brian in 11/2005). You can also read the article here, on projo.com: http://www.projo.com/news/content/BRIAN_HUBBARD_OBIT_07-12-11_KPP4NT1_v8.34e1a.html.

In addition, a lovely blog was written by Karen Putz in the Illinois' Triblocal.com site: <http://triblocal.com/bolingbrook/community/stories/2011/07/being-deaf-blind-didnt-stop-him/>.

Thank you all for your beautiful nostalgic memories about Brian.

Loving Regards,
Le'a Green, Brian's daughter
