

Providence Children's Museum

ICE CREAM SOCIAL & MAKE MOSAICS WITH
ARTIST/TEACHER OF THE DEAF PETER GEISSER

Sunday, May 3rd
12:00pm - 3:00pm

100 South Street
Providence, RI 02903

ASL interpreters and CART will be provided.

For information, contact
Cathy Saunders at saunders@childrensmuseum.org

Sponsored by:

Peter J. Geisser

Stained Glass Artist/Retired Teacher of the Deaf
www.petergeisser.net

Peter Geisser retired in 2003 after over 30 years as art teacher at the Rhode Island School for the Deaf. He taught at RISD's CE for 15 years, and now teaches part time at the UMassDartmouth. Geisser created and directed the award winning "Circle of Clay" project for VSAarts RI at the Hasbro Children's Hospital, Providence, and he co-authored a chapter in NAEA's best selling publication: Reaching and Teaching Students with Special Needs through Art. He makes stoneware/porcelain mosaic murals with colleague Mika Seeger, and has stained glass work in churches, homes and buildings around New England. He is a founding member of the Access Advisory Board of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston and is a founding member and Past President of the Special Needs Issues Group of the NAEA. Geisser is a Past-President of RIAEA and is the NAEA's Eastern Region Vice President. He received an Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts from the RI School of Design in 1997 and the 2008 RI The Pell Award for Distinguished Achievement in the Arts and the 2012 NAEA Marion Quin Dix Leadership Award. CityArts! Providence awarded him and colleague Mika Seeger the 2013 Sr. Ann Keefe Award for Creativity and Social Justice. Geisser is an active force in Art, Education and Access locally and nationally. He is a featured artist in the film: RI Archive Project: <http://riaaproject.blogspot.com>

Photo by Jonathan Clancy 2013