Dear AG BELL RHODE ISLAND Family, Members, and Friends,

Please come to our 2007 February GET TOGETHER and bowling party.

WHAT? Duckpin bowling is a "reformed" bowling adventure for those among us who can benefit from 10 pins and 3 balls, slightly smaller than true bowling bowls!

WHERE? I have reserved three lanes of Bowling Academy (Max 15 children, 5 children per lane), at 354 Taunton Avenue (Rte. 44), East Providence, just East of North Broadway. Directions below. See also Bowlingacademy@yahoo.com.

WHEN? Saturday afternoon, February 24, 2007, 12:00 to 2:00 PM. Please be prompt. We are given only 1 and ½ hours on the lanes and to eat.

COST? The tickets cost $9.00 per child. The first 5 children whose families are AG Bell members will receive a $2.00 discount from AG BELL RI CHAPTER. This price covers the cost of bowling for 1 hour (bowling shoes included), a free "meal" of pizza/hot dog, soda, chips, and a celebratory Valentine's cupcake. Door prizes will be awarded to every child. Make checks payable to AG BELL RI CHAPTER.

WHO? AG Bell Children ages 4 and over, their friends, siblings, parents, teachers, clinicians, and spouses. Parents may help their child to bowl. Please stay with your children and enjoy the fellowship and networking opportunity.

CONTACT: Please let us know if you can come... copy this message and share with children and families you know....all are welcome... *AG BELL RHODE ISLAND members will receive first priority for reservations. If you know someone who would like to come who is not a member, encourage them to come anyway, join AG Bell RI, or contact National AG Bell for a 2007 membership. .

In the meantime, have a Happy Valentines Day from all of us!

Sincerely,

Iraida Williams
